Dear Friends,

In case you have not already heard about it, our churches are planning “A Community Time for Remembering and Thanksgiving” which is aimed to provide a quiet space for reflection to remember not only the sad and challenging times of the past year, for many this will be those they have loved and lost, but also an opportunity to be thankful for neighbours and others in our communities who’ve gone the extra mile in caring and providing services when times have been difficult.

The Dates are as follows:-

All Saints Church Sandford on July 25th 2021 at 11 am followed by refreshments
For further information, please contact Ann Ogram (01934 820972)

The Church Centre, Winscombe July 25th 2021 at 3 pm followed by refreshments.

News this Week

Thanks from Tony and Llyn

Tony and Llyn Callow would like to thank everyone for their kind gifts presented at All Saints Church last Sunday. This was most unexpected but very much appreciated. We will use the money to go away for a weekend in September. Tony is retiring as Church Warden but we will both still be around doing all our usual stuff.

Tony would also like to thank the PCC for their kind gifts presented at APCC meeting a couple of weeks ago. The rose is in full bloom and looking lovely in a large pot on our patio.

Jazz in The Paddock – Cancelled

Due to the extension of the Covid restrictions, The Friends of St James have, with great regret, had to cancel Jazz in the Paddock on Saturday 3rd July. We know that many will be very disappointed by the decision but The Friends are hoping to re-arrange this event later in the summer. Watch this space!

Update on the Church Centre

Work tidying the area around the Church Centre has started, thanks to Chris and Bridget Andrews. Any additional volunteers to help them would be most welcome.

Work has also started on the decorating of the front of the Church Centre. Thank you to Steve Reed, it looks much more cheerful in its new Cornish Cream coat. Keep looking as it is hoped the lettering will start to be added soon.

Join the Young Christian Climate Network Relay as it makes its way through Bath and Wells

In the run up to the COP26 climate change talks, taking place in Glasgow in November, the Young Christian Climate Network (YCCN) are walking 750 miles from the G7 venue in Cornwall, to the COP26 climate conference in, to raise awareness of the urgent need for action not words in caring for God's creation. The exciting news is the walk will be passing through several areas of the Diocese of Bath and Wells in July allowing everyone who wants to, to join them along the way.

With the pandemic it has been hard to organise this event and now they really need the support and encouragement of churches, particularly those along their route. People of any age can get involved, but it would be really great to involve young people of the diocese.

YCCN welcome people walking with them and they also need volunteers to be lead walkers, to provide accommodation, to be planners and to provide refreshments, as well to cheer them on their way. For information please go to the YCCN website where you can sign up or contact Rachel Mander if you have a specific offer to make. And do spread the word to others. Find out more, including the dates the relay will be in Bath and Wells.

Farewell to David Ashton-Hilton

After many years loyal service to the Church in Winscombe and Sandford, David will be leaving us on 30th June. In recent months he has done excellent work for us as he has concentrated on looking after our finances. If you would like to contribute towards a gift for David, please can you put your donation in an envelope and deliver it to the Church Office - marking the envelope 'Farewell Gift for David'. As David is now working from home, he will not see the gifts coming in. The last day for making your donation is 27th June.
